

Resource 10

Price

Sale

Income

Costs

Profit

Accounts

Resource 10

The amount of money given in payment for a product or a service.

Selling a product or service in return for money.

The total amount of money received in exchange for services or from the sale of products.

The total amount of money used in the making and selling of a product or services.

The difference between the amount of money earned and the amount spent in buying, or making a product or providing a service.

A way of recording the amount of money spent and the amount of money earned.