

Benefits of multi species leys

Tannins in herbs can help to control parasitic worms naturally which will reduce the farmer's dependency on anthelmintic medicines.

Deep rooting plants draw up more nutrients providing important vitamins and minerals to the animals.

Deep rooting herbs can help reduce soil compaction, increase oxygen levels in the soil and improve drainage

Legume plants fix valuable nitrogen into the soil which can reduce the need for fertilisers