

Royal Welsh Show 2020 – join us online!

Due to Covid-19, Farming Connect have joined forces with Royal Welsh Agricultural Society (RWAS), stakeholders and other industry experts to provide a packed programme of virtual activities for the Royal Welsh Show week.

Pigs and Poultry: 20 July 2020	Beef and Sheep: 21 July 2020	Dairy: 22 July 2020	Horticulture and Forestry: 23 July 2020
10.00 - 10.30 Pig and Poultry Market Update: Nathan Ward, Kantar	10.00 - 10.30 Red Meat Market Update: John Richards, Hybu Cig Cymru	10.00 - 10.30 Dairy Industry Market Update: Patty Clayton, AHDB	10.00 - 10.30 Forestry Market Update: Iwan Parry, ICF Wales
*12:30 - 13:00 Forest Coalpit Farm -Thinking inside of the box! Business adaptation - from supplying award winning butchers and restaurants to selling pork meat boxes due to Covid-19.	12:30 - 13:00 A focus on trace element supplementation in growing lambs at Pentre Farm, Usk: Victoria Fisher, Farm First Vets	*12:00 - 12:40 Ask the Alumni/Academy: A panel of Agri Academy members share their experiences and aspirations within the agriculture industry. 12:50 - 13:30 (This session will be in Welsh) Join us on Facebook following this event for more from our Agri Academy members.	12.30 - 13.15 Growing options to generate an extra income on farm: Chris Creed, ADAS 14:00 - 14.45 Woodland Project Update: Geraint Jones, Farming Connect *14:30 - 14:37 Pasture based beef and lamb production: 'Prosper from pasture' case study video.
19:00 - 20:00 Health and happiness of your pigs - Bob Stevenson Veterinary surgeon and highly respected pig expert will be discussing pig health and husbandry and animal health and welfare training options available.	*19:00 - 20:00 Welsh agriculture has a good environmental story to tell, but there's more that can be done. How genetic advances, grassland management, animal health improvement, tree planting, and better fertiliser application can lead to more profitable businesses. Dr Prysor Williams, Bangor University	19.30 - 21.00 Demo Farm Live, Mountjoy Farm: Embracing genomic technology to breed replacement cows and reducing nitrogen input through the use of clover.	19:00 - 20:00 What is agroforestry and how can it benefit the farm business? Tim Pagella, Bangor University

*These activities will be broadcasted directly to the Royal Welsh Agricultural Society virtual show platform: royalwelsh.digital

For more information and how to register for the above activities, please visit www.gov.wales/farmingconnect

