Cookery Demonstration: Cooks/Chefs are being invited to appear live on the Anglesey Food Week stage which feeds into Facebook Live. To get involved we need to know, who you are, what you are going to cook, what day and time and the dish needs to promote local products email blas@welshproduce.com

Closing date: 11th November email blas@welshproduce.com

Virtual Tours/Workshops: Food and Drink Producers are being invited to explain how their product is made, meet the team, how should it be served, where can it be purchased. This activity can either be done via the 'Live' stage and be fed through to Facebook Live or it can be set up as a webinar which is recorded and then uploaded onto social media for all to see.

Closing date: 11th November email blas@welshproduce.com

Meet the Producer: The producers will be available together for a one hour 'Live' online session for an introduction to their products, how they should be served and how they can be purchased. Arrive on the platform and go around the booths and speak directly to the producer or watch them show how best to serve their product.

Closing date: 20th November Application form

All ideas welcome: All content for this week's activity is welcomed, it can be presented in either English or Welsh or both. If you would like to run a quiz from your pub, give us a tour of your farm, simply network or sing Christmas Carols – this is a celebration of who we are and we're stronger when we work together.

Closing date: 20th November email blas@welshproduce.com
